

Small Town Boy Justin Moore Joins Headwaters Country Jam Line Up

Headwaters Country Jam announces it has added Justin Moore to Thursday night's line up. He joins Country vet Joe Nichols to make the opening night of the 5th annual Headwaters Country Jam one amazing night to remember. Moore was raised in a town with a population of 272 and is a small town redneck boy to the core. He worked on his grandparent's cattle ranch and enjoyed all the pursuits rural life has to offer. His early years have directly affected his music helping him crank out such hits as, "Small Town USA," "If Heaven Wasn't So Far Away," "Backwoods," and recent hit "Bait a Hook."
